WILL HAVE CHARGE OF THE SIXTEENTH WARD.

His Selection Caused an Outburst of Enthusiastic Applause From a Large Congregation That Had Gathered In the Meeting House—Sketch of the New Bishop's Life

A great burst of applanse swept over the audience in the Sixteenth ward meeting house last night when President Angus M. Cannon amnounced the selection of Elder George R. Emery to act as bishop of that ward to succeed the late Hisbop Kessler, and loud were the murmurs of approval that were heard on every hand, notwithstanding President Cannon's efforts to subject the late Hisbop Kessler, and loud were the murmurs of approval that were heard on every hand, notwithstanding President Cannon's efforts to subjects.

large hall was filled, and the people were speculating on the probabilities of different men being selected. The members of the state presidency—President Angus M. Cannon and his counselors, Charles W. Penrese and Joseph E. Taylor—were present, and Joseph E. Taylor—were present, and president Joseph F. Smith came in later. The meeting was called to order by President Cannon, and after singing by the choir, Elder William Langford

Counseior Joseph E. Taylor ad-diseased the congregation, giving a risetch of the history of the ward and referring to the late Bishop Kessier, who presided over the ward from 1850 until his death recently. He explained to the people the method of choosing a bishop and the right of the neonle to

Before the meeting closed, President Joseph F. Smith spoke of the life and record of the late Bishop Kessler and paid an eloquent tribute to his memory. He also thanked the men who had served so faithfully and well as his counselors. He spoke on the great work instituted by the Prophet Joseph Smith, saying that no man who has alled the position of president to the church was as great a man as was Joseph Smith the prophet. President Smith said that he looked upon him as being next to Christ.

Judning from the demonstration after the meeting, and from the pleased expressions from the people, no other man could have been selected who could have given such general falligation as the selection of Mr. Emery has done.

is the basis upon which negotiations are proceeding. It will be seen that upon this basis the interest charge of the company would be reduced from $773.000 to $120,000 per year, or brought to such a point that the business would yield profits.

The difficulty in securing the reduction has been with the holders of the $750,000 first lien bonds, and the heirs of the Joseph Bannigan estate, who hold bonds to the amount of $1,500,000, secured by a first mortgage on the Pioneer Power plant, and guaranteed by prominent individuals in the Union Light & Power company. These bonds are considered to be worth their face, and the holders are opposed to a reduction.
